

Mr Adolph John Saskiw

July 24, 1944 - September 3, 2015

SASKIW, ADOLPH J.

July 24, 1944 - September 3, 2015

"The fight is over, not won, but done"

With sad hearts we announce that after a short battle with brain cancer, our much loved Adolph has passed away. He will be lovingly remembered by his wife, MaryAnn, daughter, Brenda (Darren) and son, Gary (Marie). He will be very much missed by his grandchildren, Zachary and Evelyn; his two sisters, Adeline Palsitt and Patricia Chmilar (Nestor); as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Adolph will be joined in heaven by his parents, Annie and Harry; and brother-in-law, Paul Palsitt.

A Celebration of Adolph's Life will be held on Friday, September 11, 2015 at the Sherwood Park Alliance Church at 1011 Clover Bar Road. There will be a public viewing at 10:00 am, followed by the service at 11:00 am. Interment to follow.

Adolph's favourite colour was blue. In honour of him, we welcome you to wear something in that colour.

Memorial donations in Adolph's honour may be made to St. Joseph's Auxillary Hospital Foundation Palliative Ward, 10707 29 Ave NW, Edmonton, AB T6J 6W1, or the Memorial Society of Edmonton & District, 10235 124 St NW, Edmonton, AB T5N 1P9.
