It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of our mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Anne. Peacefully in her sleep, on April 17, 2015 God called her.

Anne is survived by her loving family, one son, Dwight (Sherrie), and three daughters Sharon (Norbert), Valerie (Mark) and Debbie (Scott); 11 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren (with one more to arrive in June); three sisters, Verna, Gladys, and Diana; one brother, Glen; as well as numerous other family and friends. She is predeceased by her husband, Ed; and son, Dean.

We wish to thank all the residence and staff at the Terra Losa Lifestyle Options whom she enjoyed in friendship and camaraderie throughout the short period she made it her home.

“ The death of our mother Alvina Irvine in 1944 had a negative and lasting impact on our family. During our teenage years, the Irvine brothers real family became the Baumbachs, Our years there held us together and gave us healing and a positive future.

Aunt Anne will always be fondly remembered as a part of our most treasured memories.
