

Belanger Maurice Paul "Papa Moe"

December 28, 1932 - September 7, 2015

Our Father never feared death, for he LIVED his life.

Maurice Paul Belanger "Papa Moe"

December 28, 1932-September 7, 2015

"Ohhhhhhhhh, Dry Up!" The most time-honoured catch phrase of our father. An adored, loved, honoured, feared, hated SOB who always commanded respect. He was a decorated Korean War Veteran, labour relations and apprenticeships advocate, husband, father, grandfather, dear friend, amazing hunter and angler. Moe is remembered with love by his wife Christine, daughters Roxanne (Daryl) and Maureen (Terry) and granddaughters Wyatt and Haven. Our father's wishes are to be cremated and the disposition of his cremated remains be carried out by his loved ones. He wished for no public or religious service, but a celebration of his life at a future date. We will honour and carry out our father's exact wishes, for he has threatened hauntings if we do not comply.
