“ Today, sadly, Lorna informed me of Cathy's passing. My heart broke for her and her family. Cathy is at peace now. Her fight is done. Now it's the family's turn to fight through their grief, but know that she will always remain vibrant in your thoughts and memories. I extend my deepest condolences to all members of her family and especially to her children. She spoke of you with such pride and love. Heaven has become brighter since receiving Cathy because a shining spirit such as hers cannot be dimmed. Just as on this earth her smile and positive spirit would always light up the room, her grace, strength and positivism will continue in those touched by her life. She touched my heart and life as well. Whereas I have had many patients over the years, she was an inspiring and memorable lady. The world will miss her and be emptier without her. I will remember her forever fondly.

“ Cathy and I had become close in the past couple of years and her journey in fighting her illness became a strong spiritual one. She was an inspiration to me in her amazing positivity and our goal to belly laugh every day came naturally right to the last time we spoke. My condolences to her family, friends, staff and Todd who was her loving supporter to the end. We will miss your sparkle Cathy.
