“ Of the many memories I have of Uncle Cecil, some of the fondest are of boxing day snowmobiling out at the farm. What great times those were. I still think about those days every Christmas! Praying for all of you at this difficult time.

“ We never got a chance to know Cecil however because we know Darren and the kind of man he is - loving, caring, hard working, honest - a true family man and a great friend we can only image than Cecil was part of instilling these qualities therefore must have been a wonderful man as well. We are praying that the family remembers the good times and the smiles - our heart is with you.
