“ Uncle Charlie, having grown up with you living across the alley was one of the best childhoods a kid could ask for always ready with a smile and a wink, laughing at all of us kids while we had many a water fight or playing hide and seek and pointing out the hidden person for us or watching us go garden raiding and not snitching on us. Always ready to lend us a hand no matter what the project or task may be. The many camping trips to Wizard Lake or Pigeon Lake with all of us kids in toe. I would always look for the ready smile and wave as I was either arriving or leaving the house. You were a huge part of my childhood and I will miss you! XOXXOX <3 <3
