

David Warren Anderson

June 30, 1933 - September 7, 2013

David Warren Anderson was born to Ivan and Esther Anderson on June 30, 1933 in their family home near Mosside, Alberta. He was the third of four children. He grew up in the Morin area. Dad was a diligent and bright student, excelling in academics, and pursuing education into the later years of his life. Dad married Carmen Muriel Williams, starting the foundation that would build a strong vibrant family, with four children of their own. This grew to include many others who, though not related by blood, became deeply loved members of the family.

David dedicated his life to serving his Lord and Savior, ministering in many communities throughout Northern Canada. David was full of life, love and mischief which he shared generously where ever he went.

David spent his final days surrounded by the family, continuing to share in the caring relationships that he forged throughout his life.

David is survived by his wife of 58 years, Carmen Muriel Anderson: Children Colin (Heather) Anderson, Carol (Neil) Anderson, Bruce (Cheryl) Anderson, Glenn (Eleisa) Anderson. 12 Grandchildren; Danielle, Brett, Brandon, Kyle, Jamie, Stephanie, Kathleen, Erin, Kelly, Meagan, Jenna, Nolan, and one great grandchild, Brooklyn; Brother Lloyd (Connie) Anderson, sister Sharon (George) Munro, and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his parents Ivan and Esther Anderson and his sister Melva Stewart.
