“ *My favorite memory is Uncle Ed coming to yhe house to pick us kids up and takw us with him for the day. We would go out to check the cows, check out how the crops were doing. Maybe stop at Elsie's Cafe for some Lucky Elephant popcorn and choc milk. I don't know how he could put up with us but his kids can thank all the older neices and nephews for giving him all the pre-parenting training!!! You're welcome.
Goodbye Uncle Ed. I will miss your laugh and your stories. See you on the other side.*

We were sorry to hear of Ed, uncle Ed's passing. We have great memories of him from family visits and camping trips. We hope you can find comfort in your memories of your Dad and all the good times you had with him

He is at peace now with no pains or aches and has been reunited with Aunt Dawn, his mom and dad and all of the brothers. He is still with each you in spirit and is still watching over you and your families.
