“ I had the pleasure of meeting Earnie when I moved next door to him. At first I don't think he was too sure about us but as the time went on we became great buddies. My son when he started talking would always peek through the fence and talk to him and Earnie loved it. Everyday we would walk by the house he would wave and Morgan would always look to see if his buddy was waiting for him so he could wave. So many wonderful memories for a wonderful man he will be dearly missed by all who had the honour of knowing him. Thanks for the laughs and the great stories. From the Noel/Alexander family.
