

Gordon Allan Brandolini

July 24, 1942 - June 9, 2015

Surrounded by the people he loved, Gord passed away peacefully at the Mazankowski Heart Institute on June 9, 2015 at the age of 72.

He was a loving husband of 46 years to wife Pat, a good father to son Donald (Amy) and daughter Brenda (Bev), and loving grandfather to his grandchildren Abby, Kira, and Rhys. Gord was predeceased by both his parents, Frank and Hilda, and his sister Claire.

Gord enjoyed cooking up a storm in the kitchen, working in his workshop on the lathe, or just creating something out of wood or acrylic. Come spring, his favourite pleasure was to be at the baseball diamond umpiring a game, chatting it up with the catchers, and interacting with coaches and players.

“ Gordie and I played little league baseball, babe ruth, connie mack, and super connie mack baseball. Gordie was a great friend we attended and graduated from Vancouver College in 1961. I have long lasting memories of the baseball that we played together and are years at Vancouver college. We had a great reunion in 2004 of the 50th anniversary of our 1954 little league all star team. It was so great to see him. I am so sorry of his passing, I was not aware of it. It was brought up this morning at are coffee get together He his well remembered by all of us

“ Dear Pat,
We were so sorry to hear of your loss. Although we had only met briefly, it was very clear to us how dear you and Gord were to each other.
Please feel free to lean on us, if there's anything you need a hand with. We look forward to seeing you at a campfire night soon.
Take care.

“ Patience, Raven and I loved Gord. He was so wonderful to the children and we looked forward to seeing him often. Gord came to my rescue many times with building things for me and just to offer some wonderful advice on something. We will all dearly miss you Gord. Love Sandii, Patience and Raven
