

Harry Hugh Harrison

January 29, 1932 - April 26, 2016

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

BR

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Harry and I did a number of driving clinics together. He was a gifted horeseman, a very knowledgable wheelwright and a pleasure to be around. He was the go to person we all went to when we needed help with carts, carriages and driving tips. He was always willing to help anyone who asked and often drove many miles to do so.. We were good friends - he will be missed. - Barb Richard

Barb Richard - April 27, 2016 at 06:37 PM

KH

I am so so sorry to hear this! I just talk to Harry last week and we told lies and laughed and giggled for almost an hour....I'm going to miss him. He was so knowledgable, such fun, a kind man...you're with your Kate now Harry.....Kathy Helmig

Kathy Helmig - April 28, 2016 at 10:50 PM