“ My heartfelt condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one, James. I hope all your happy memories will help you through these sad and difficult times. May you find comfort in knowing that Jehovah God is very much aware of your grief and He has promised to do something about it. In the Bible books of John 5:28, 29; Revelation 21:4 and Psalm 37:11, 29 we are told that the dead who are in God's memory will be resurrected at a time when He will have removed all sickness, pain and death from the earth forever. Dear family until that wonderful promise from God, who cannot lie (Titus 1:2) is fulfilled, may He soothe your grieving hearts and grant you peace now and in the coming days.

“ Grandpa, I'll never forget our drives to Cocalalla when we would pass cows and you used the "Bon manure" joke every time. There are so many more memories like that you leave with us and I will cherish them always. Love you and miss you, your granddaughter Jamie Laurent “ Condolences go out to the family and friends of Jim Cameron. These are sent on behalf of Blanche Cave in remembrance of the time shared with Jim at Churchill Manor and also time shared at the Grey Nuns Hospital where they both spent time in recent months. Jim always had pertinent comments on every topic and kept the conversations lively. His wit and wisdom were shared with all. He will be fondly remembered.

“ Uncle Jim,
I am so sad that our family has lost you...for you will be deeply missed.
However; I know that you are at peace, after your long struggle.
There are too many memories to possibly share them all;
but, the Cameron clan getting together at Christmas always meant lots of fun that you were always such a big part of.
Your smile and laughter and always being greeted with a big hug.
I was blessed to have such a wonderful Uncle.
Love Renee, Ken and Erik.
