“ Jessica blessed us as being one of the beautiful children of Terry and Kathy Lineberry who pastored our Church at Bethany N.C when she was even then a beautiful young lady growing up in a household drenched in LOVE.....we will see her again,....this is not the final good-bye....what a wonderful time it will be in Heaven with all the folks we loved so much. I remember going to her wedding and remember how beautiful she was and not once did her beauty fade....God bless her family with comfort that only HE can give.....love and prayers.
