“ I am so sorry to learn this very sad news. I knew Kelli-Lynn when she was the manager at West Central Forage Association. She was a smart, vivacious, passionate and beautiful young woman. Kelli-Lynn lived life to the fullest, and always got back on the horse (or back into the parachute) no matter what - she wasn't about to let anything stop her. I am so sorry for your loss; it will be felt by many.
