“ Sending my thoughts and prayers to my Auntie Paula, Uncle Roy, and Kyle's lovely sister Kayla, and her beautiful babies.. I love you all and wish you well in your grieving process. Kyle and I go way back to the point of where we both probably couldn't tell you how or when we started being friends, cause we were both born into it.. My Auntie Paula used to baby sit me with Kyle- there were so many lovely mornings that involved cartoons and cereal.. When I think back to those times I can remember the colour of your favourite pajama's, the colour of your shiny brown hair, and your eyes. Such a beautiful memory or you to leave me with. For being younger than four years old at the time, I'm quite amazed I remember all that, but I'm glad I've held onto those memories for so long... There's so many more times.. All the games we used to play, all the trouble we got into but never got caught for... Watching Scooby together in the morning with your mom. And seeing the Spy kids movie in 3D... That was one of the best times ever.. And camping.. I remember this one weekend we went camping to Wabamun, and though I've been there many times without I think I'm going to think of you every time I am there now.. You gave me the best memories Kyle. And it kills me inside knowing that just a little over a week ago I was wanting to call you up to continue making those memories, but next time we will be making memories it will be in a way better place. I love you Kyle, Always have and always will.

“ Kyle, little kylie-poo. I remember when you were running around in diapers calling yourself "kyle wildman", i watched you grow into a fine handsome respectable young man. You left this world too soon, and I am not ready to say good-bye. So to you I say Auf Wiedersehen, which in German means "Until we meet again". I love you and will miss you always.
