“ I had the honor of knowing Leo for over 20 years. From running his steamers, to Hot Brandy and fresh honey when you stopped by for a visit. My favorite story he told was when the Royal Bank was stolen, Leo and some friends helped them selves to Beer at the bar, As all the RCMP were out of town chase down the bank as it was just a trailer back then. We will not forget you My Mon Aime

“ Our condolences to the Family. We are saddened by the passing of Leo. When Leo arrived at Meadowlark Lodge, he shared the mealtime table with my Mom, Gertrude. They visited and had friendly conversations during his time there. He is missed.

“ Our condolences to all of you cousins and Family. About 5 years ago Uncle Leo came and stayed for a few days at our home on the farm near Saint-Front, Sask. We sure enjoyed his visit and we had a good time. For quite a few years he never forgot to phone at Christmas or Easter to inquire how my parents were doing. It was always good to hear from him.

“ My condolences cousins and family. Uncle worked for our dad (Lou) when was I was about 6 years old. He would come to tuck us in bed at night, one time he told us a story about a fight he with a bear, he had put ketchup on his face hands and legs to make us believe that it was true, not a good story to tell children before going to sleep, now we wanted the lights on because we were scared. Rest in peace uncle and may God hold you in the palm of his hands.
