“ He was always rough around the edges but when you needed a laugh he always gave me one . When I was little he used to have nude calendars in his garage up and I at the age of I think 4 or 5 thought that was gross. So he would let me with tape May bikinis for them !! I don't ever remember him talkin them down . I was proud of those bikinis !!!! Thank uncle Marv !!! That was Kind of you !! I love you and will never forget you

“ I fondly remember Uncle Marv as having a smile and laughter that was bigger than life, and I have great memories of the few times Lance and I trundled along with him and Aunt Ellen to a hockey game. Much love to the whole family. I know he will be missed.
