

Mr. Navarro Chaffee

February 8, 1941 - October 23, 2015

During the afternoon of October 23, 2015, Navarro Chaffee of Drayton Valley passed away peacefully with his family by his side.

Navarro is survived by his loving wife, Loretta, their daughter Tina (Melvin) Waddell of Drayton Valley, sons Chad (Michelle) Chaffee and Craig (Shannon Paige and her children Jesse, Kendall, Ainslee) Chaffee and granddaughters Jetaime Connelly, Vivian Zablewski, Chelene Zablewski, Coral Middlecamp and Mia Chaffee.

He is also survived by four brothers, Verlin (Elaine) Chaffee, Hardin Jr. (Judy) Chaffee, Dale (Julie) Chaffee and Dennis (Gail) Chaffee and three sisters, Connie (Allen) MacLean, Yvonne (Ed) Schreiber and Donna (Bob) Hoskins and several cousins, nieces and nephews.

Navarro was predeceased by his parents Hardin and Lorna Chaffee, grandson Isaiah Navarro Waddell and granddaughter Rebecca Joy Waddell. The family would like to thank Pastors Randy and Joan Rye of Life Church, Drayton Valley for being with the family the day that Navarro passed. Also to everyone else who dropped by with food, words of support and encouragement.

Navarro requested to be cremated and to celebrate his memory with family and friends next spring around a roaring campfire to honour his life.

“ Navarro was my mentor, he showed me what a tank truck driver's life was like. He is gone that is so sad. I will never see him again that is sad. Navarro had a unique personality. You will be missed my friend.
