Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,

And the sun has set for me,

I want no rites in a gloom filled room;

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long,

And not with a head bowed low.

Remember the love that was once shared;

Miss me but let me go.

For this journey we must all take,

And each must go alone.

It is part of the Master's plan –

A step on the road to Home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,

Go to friends we know;

And bury your sorrows in doing good Deeds,

Miss me but let me go.
