“ We met Norman years ago when my niece Angie and he were down here visiting. We thought he was the most wonderful man. He had the generosity of spirit, the humour, the personality and the affection for us that we could all feel. Norm knew that I could always tell if someone was giving a genuine hug and he always did. Sean and he could be jokesters together. Angie and norm were always the bests hosts we could ever ask for when we would visit them whether it was in their home, their campsite on on their boat in the water. They always made us feel wanted. Norm did the best fish fries we ever had. We will miss norm immensely. The norm that we knew will never be forgotten. His mom Jeannine and the rest of norms family are terrific as well and our heartfelt sympathy goes out to them as well as to my beautiful nieces Angie katelyn and kaylee. Much love to all.
