“ I will miss my eldest brother as I should however I am grateful for the grace shown on our family.

My mother, now 92 years of age, was the eldest of 18 children, of which several are still alive, there were 8 of us at home, Roger being the first to pass away.

My wife Clara Pequin (daughter of the late Clarence and Pearl Shewfelt) is from a family of 14 children.

Here is the point. Except for my brother Roger and a very few cousins, all of Clara's siblings and many dozens of cousins, nearly one thousand family members in total , when you count both sides of our family, continue to be alive and well. What are the odds when you consider the stage in life that we have reached.

Again I miss my brother and remain available to his family and trust that life will continue to be good to everyone.

*Sincerely,
Denis & Clara Pequin*
