“ I was shocked and saddened to learn of the death of your father. When we spoke on his birthday he told me he was feeling better and had decided to remain in his suite (even though we all know how he felt about that for two years).

Your father and I were good friends for many years -- in fact we were "venting partners". I admired and respected him immensely. He was usually so down to earth and dealt with life in a matter of fact way. The only time he showed any bitterness was over the fact that he never got to share his retirement with the love of his life, your mother. He tried to live life to the fullest but unfortunately again was given a lot of grief to deal with.

He told me how proud he was of his children and that he was so thankful for your help Carol, especially since he was so grouchy sometimes.

I will miss our conversations dearly, but the fact that he will now rest in peace beside his beloved Connie gives me a lot of comfort and hopefully gives you some as well.
