“ *The wind is blowing softly
through the trees
A gentle breeze to carry you where you should be
To meet the family gone before
Who will gather you in their embrace*

Rest in peace, Steven

“ It's an unbelievable thing to go through - the death of a loved one at such a young age. When I heard the news - I was shocked. I still feel like it can't really be true.

I remember when Steven lived with us for a short time - we would have debates at the supper table and he would always just laugh and concede - telling me he pitied my future husband because there was no way to win an argument with me. He never gave up - and it made for an interesting dinner hour.

One of my favorite memories of Steven was a song he used to sing to annoy my brother - and of course - it became a song I'd sing to annoy him, too. I sang that song to my brother up until he passed away- much to his dismay. I can still hear Steven singing, "Jay-Jo-Jeans and his jelly beans..." In fact - he is probably with my brother - singing it now.

I hope that wherever you are Steven - you are in peace.

I can't believe that Steven is gone - and I am so sorry for your loss Aunt Shirley, Ken, Natasha and Matthew. My thoughts are with you all.

XOXO

Heather, Curtis, Jada, Maysa and Raya
