“ Tony and I had the privilege of meeting your mom in 2009 while Tony was in the city for treatment. We spent many hours chatting out on the patio. What a delight and special person she was. Lost touch with her after her move from the Ashborne. She made Tony a small cushion to use under his arm when we travel and he still uses it. Thelma will always have a special place in our hearts and we will miss her dearly. Our sympathies to your families as you deal with her loss. God Bless. Tony and Beth Pierog
